About

The Accuratus Minimus-X RF 2.4Ghz wireless set is the ideal partner for your modern and sleek PC environment. This wireless keyboard and mouse set has an excellent range of 10 metres, however have been proven to work in our labs at an even further distance! The Minimus-X is designed with style in mind, with an ultra sleek stainless steel surround and bottom case, a keyboard thickness of just 6.9mm and no wires, even the most style conscious wont be disappointed. The set is available in both black and white in a Windows layout with up to date Windows 8 keys.

The Minimus-X keyboard has a compact layout, which means it has all the usual 'qwerty' keys and also the addition of a page navigation keys and a number pad on the right hand side perfect for spreadsheets and other number crunching, etc. It also has multimedia and internet keys along the top, accessible with the blue function keys (Media Player, Volume Up/Down, Mute, Previous/Next Track, Play/Pause, Stop, Internet, Email, My computer, Favourites).
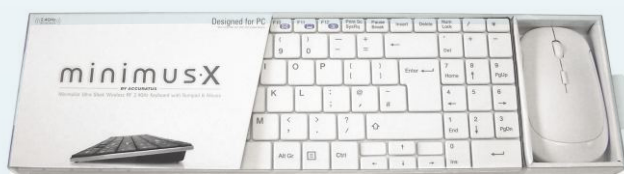

An excellent set to complete your sleek PC desktop...
